

There's no need to suffer for your art when you join us for a one week painting holiday in Menorca. You can relax and enjoy the comforts of a lovely Four Star Hotel in one of the most select resorts on this beautiful Mediterranean island.

You will visit idyllic coastal, rural and village locations that will be a feast for your eyes and imagination. You will be inspired to paint and sketch wherever you go - you will gain greater confidence to express yourself.

To help you capture the island on canvas, you will enjoy the expert tuition of John Glover, one of Britain's most gifted landscape and portrait artists.

John has exhibited at:

The Royal Society of Portrait Painters
The Royal Society of Marine Artists
The Royal Institute of Oil Painters
The National Portrait Gallery, London

Inspiration to...
sketch, paint, learn - relax and enjoy

After a day sketching and painting wonderful locations, our artists have the exclusive use of a spacious studio at the Four Star S'Algar Hotel.

Raise your eyes from your canvas and you will see the blue Mediterranean just a few short steps away... maybe you should finish that painting later and have a swim, or perhaps sit in the sun by the pool with a glass of chilled wine.

Painting can be pure joy...
